1999 CENTENNIAL CALENDAR

“By using this calendar throughout the year, you will see the diverse range of issues that the National Consumers League monitors. And to help you be your own best advocate, we include tips related to each month’s topic. We hope you enjoy spending our centennial year with us.”

—Linda F. Golodner, President of the National Consumers League

Chris Kleponis

Linda F. Golodner at the Smithsonian exhibition, “Between a Rock and a Hard Place, A History of American Sweatshops, 1820 – Present.”

“...the Consumer’s League’s White Label was sewn into garments made under fair working conditions. I became a part of the citizens committee to use my purchasing power to affect social policies. That was my first real consumer experience.”

— Esther Peterson (1906-1997), NCL Honorary President, from “Consumer Activists: They Made a Difference”

The National Consumers League, a private, nonprofit membership organization, celebrates our 100th year of advocacy in 1999. Please help us further our mission to identify, protect, represent, and advance the economic and social interests of consumers and workers by becoming a member. For information on how to join, call or write: National Consumers League, 1701 K Street, NW, Suite 1200, Washington, DC 20006, (202) 835-3323, <www.nclnet.org>.

The League thanks American Express Company and S.C. Johnson & Son, Inc. for the educational grants that made this calendar possible.
